

BART SKILS

BIOGRAPHY

Always one step ahead of the game, Bart Skils has established himself as one of Holland's most respected techno dj's. His dj sets are cheered as extremely forward thinking and musically sound. With releases on 100% Pure, Tronic, Remote Area and Rejected, Bart is now also building a solid road as producer. Together with Anton Pieete he forms the acclaimed techno alliance 'District One'.

Bart Skils played a crucial role in bringing the local scene to a boiling point promoting national talent on his Voltt, Traffic and Static nights. Guys like Kabale und Liebe, Julien Chaptal, Polder, Boris Werner or Anton Pieete all made their debuting appearances at one of Skils' numerous nights. The massive outdoor festival 'Voltt Loves Summer' is regarded by many in the Dutch scene as an absolute highlight of the year with over 10.000 party people attending.

Persistently rocking venues and festival-sites, he has further underlined his position as one of the country's most reliable and authoritative dj's. Uncompromising, yet with a keen eye on the dance floor, he appeals to anyone from the seasoned techno purist to the househead. His long lasting experience as a dj and ability to shift effortlessly between genres makes Bart a sure-fire crowd mover at any given party.

A new level beckons as Bart Skils is gaining grounds across the border through his productions. Having made a name for himself on Dutch imprint 100% Pure & Tronic, Skils has quickly become a stalwart of the groove-led techno and tech house scenes. Based out of a garden studio in his backyard in central Amsterdam, Skils productions take the age-old beats & bass combination and squeeze every last drop out of it.
