

OXIA is one of France's most respected DJ's and producers with a career spanning over twenty years and intensive touring on all continents. He has built an impressive list of remixes and releases on respected imprints such as Kompakt, Hot Creations, 8bit, Knee Deep In Sound, Saved ... in addition to his own Diversions Music label.

The Frenchman released his debut album '24 Heures' on Goodlife in 2004 and his second widely acclaimed album 'Tides Of Mind' was released in 2012 on Infine. Several collaborations were established as well, with Miss Kittin, Agoria, or Nicolas Maseyeff. With the latter OXIA also launched Diversions Music in 2016, on which he has so far released four EPs.

In 2017, OXIA's classic hit "Domino" (40 million views on YouTube) was re-released on Sapiens, and came with a number of very successful remixes. In parallel, OXIA himself released a few remixes, notably for Moby (Suara), and others (Moan, Diversions Music).

2018 has been a strong year for OXIA with his

"Reset To Zero" EP plus a remix on Diversions and a contribution to Knee Deep in Sound's Ibiza 2018. His touring schedule is taking him across the globe, from the intimate clubs to the festivals, and for the fifth consecutive year, playing for Music On Ibiza.

2019 holds a string of new releases by Oxia with a first EP, Second Mood, on Diversions Music (March).
